

Undergraduate Research in Natural and Clinical Science and Technology Journal

“Research in Earnest”

Do You Want to Promote Undergraduate Research?

The URNCST Journal is recruiting Journal Assistants!

The URNCST [pronounced “earnest”] Journal is the leading open access, indexed, peer-reviewed publication for undergraduate research conferences. The journal accepts abstract submissions from planning committees globally, while striving to innovatively promote undergraduate research initiatives in the process. As an innovative journal, we are supporting undergraduate research initiatives through recruiting Assistants!

No Experience Required: Don’t have any research experience? No problem! All we require is your willingness to support undergraduate research!

Work Remotely: As an Assistant, you help us to promote the URNCST Journal to undergraduate researchers within your geographical location and/or online to the institution(s) where you are already affiliated.

Free Promotional Materials: We provide all the promotional materials you need as an Assistant. Can’t find what you’re looking for? Just ask us!

Improve Your Marketing Skills/Grow Your Network: Whether it’s by social media, attending networking events, or simply sharing the journal with your friends, how you promote the journal is up to you. Feel free to experiment, while also building your social media following and professional networks!
